Our Father, which art in heaven,
Hallowed be thy name;
Thy Kingdom come; thy will be done;
On earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
As we forgive them that trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation; but deliver us from evil.
For Thine is the Kingdom, the power and the glory,
For ever and ever. Amen.

The Dash

I read of a man who stood to speak
at the funeral of his friend.
He referred to the dates on his tombstone
from the beginning to the end.
He noted that first came the date of his birth
and spoke of the next date with tears,
but he said what mattered most of all
was the dash between those years.
For the dash represents all the time
that he spent alive on earth,
and now, only those who loved him know
what that little line is worth.
For it matters not how much we own,
the cars, the house, the cash,
what matters is how we live and love
and how we spend our dash.
So think about this long and hard;
are there things you'd like to change?
For you never know how much time is left,
(you could be mid-range).
If we could just slow down enough
to consider what's true and real,
and always try to understand
the way other people feel.
And be less quick to anger
and show appreciation more,
and love the people in our lives
like we've never loved before.
If we treat each other with respect
and more often wear a smile,
remembering that this special dash
might only last a while.
So when your eulogy is being read
and with your life's actions to rehash,
Would you be pleased with the things they say about how you spent your dash?
