Barry and the family would like to thank you for your love in coming to support them in their sorrow, and to honour Anna today. We warmly invite you to stay and share afternoon tea together after the service.

Esther, Anna's dear friend, has prepared cards to record a specific memory of Anna that will be collated as a lasting tribute for the family. These are in the foyer, by the condolence book - we would love you to contribute.

How Great Thou Art

Oh Lord my God, when I in awesome wonder, consider all the works Thy hands have made.
I see the stars, I hear the rolling thunder,
Thy power throughout the universe displayed.

Chorus

*Then sings my soul, my Saviour, God to Thee,
How great Thou art, how great Thou art.
Then sings my soul, my Saviour, God to Thee,
How great Thou art, how great Thou art.*

When through the woods and forest glades I wander,
and hear the birds sing sweetly in the trees.
When I look down from lofty mountain grandeur,
and hear the brook and feel the gentle breeze.

Chorus

I Will Be With You

(Anna asked for the words to be included to reflect on while she is singing with the choir.)

When you pass through the water, when you walk through the fire, when the rivers overflow, I will be with you.
When you walk through the desert, when you're caught in the storm, when you lose your way I will be with you.

When you can't find the answer, when you're filled with despair,
when you stumble and fall, I will be with you.
When you're tired from the struggle, when you're weak from the pain, lean on me, I will be with you.

For I have called you by name, you've heard the echo of my voice, whisper 'I love you, you are mine'.
For you are precious in my sight, and I will guide you through the night, when you walk, walk by faith I will be with you.

In your joy, and in your pain, if you call out my name, I will be with you.
When you walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
have no fear I will be with you.
