Welcome and Words of Reflection

Reading—One At Rest

Think of me as one at rest, for me you should not weep I have no pain no troubled thoughts for I am just asleep

The living thinking me that was, is now forever still and life goes on without me now, as time forever will.

If your heart is heavy now because I've gone away dwell not long upon it friend for none of us can stay

Those of you who liked me, I sincerely thank you all and those of you who loved me, I thank you most of all.

And in my fleeting lifespan, as time went rushing by I found some time to hesitate, to laugh, to love, to cry

Matters it now if time began if time will ever cease?
I was here, I used it all, and now I am at peace.

Reading—Measure of a Man

The measure of a man is not determined by his show of outward strength or the volume of his voice or the thunder of his actions or of his intellect or academic abilities.
It is seen rather in terms of the love that he has for his family and for everyone the strength of his commitments the genuineness of his friendships the sincerity of his purpose the quiet courage of his convictions the fun, laughter, joy and happiness he gives to his family and to others his love of life, his patience and honesty and his contentment with what he has
