

'The Measure of a Man'
Not 'How did he die?' but 'How did he live?'
Not 'What did he gain?' but 'What did he give?'
These are the units to measure the worth
Of a man as a man, regardless of birth.

A good community is not made by wealth, or by fine words, or by the success of a few. It is made when we decide no one should be left alone. It is made in clubs, committees, kitchens, meetings, phone calls, working bees, sports fields, campaigns, and quiet acts of kindness.

A life of service says comfort is not enough, that fairness matters, and the poor, the lonely, and the overlooked are not someone else's problem. It says community is strongest when care reaches furthest.

And when such a life ends, it leaves behind more than memory. It leaves habits strengthened, causes carried forward, people encouraged, and a standard for the rest of us to live up to.

*To know even one life has breathed easier because you have lived.
This is to have succeeded.*

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven,

Hallowed be thy name;

Thy Kingdom come;

Thy will be done;

On earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our trespasses,

As we forgive them that trespass against us.

And lead us not into temptation;

But deliver us from evil.

For Thine is the Kingdom, the power and the glory,

For ever and ever. Amen.

Following the service, you are invited to remain at the centre to join the family for fellowship & refreshment followed later by an informal gathering to share memories at the Royal Wellington Golf Club, Golf Rd, Heretaunga
