"Keep It Simple"

Barbara's Choice

When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me
I want no rites in a gloom filled room
Why cry for a soul set free.

When I come to the end of my journey
And I travel my last weary mile
Just forget if you can, that I ever frowned
And remember only the smile.

I'd like the memory of me to be a happy one.
I'd like to leave an afterglow of smiles when life is done.
I'd like to leave an echo whispering softly down the ways
Of happy times and laughing times and bright and sunny days.
I'd like the tears of those who grieve to dry before the sun
Of happy memories that I leave when my life is done.

Barbara compiled her poem from these sources

The first four lines are from Let Me Go by Christina Rossetti

*The second set of four lines are from When I'm Gone
(also known as When I Come to the End) by Lyman Hancock*

The last six lines are the poem Afterglow by Helen Lawrie Marshall
