Clock of Life

The clock of life is wound but once

No man can know when it stops

At late or early hour

Now is the only time you own

Love, live, toil with a will

Place no faith in tomorrow

For the clock may then be still

They say that life's a circle

And things go round and round

This is true and probably why

I'm sending flowers now.

To love, to live

To forgive

Can be the only way

This is why the rain must fall

To grow another day
