Good Timber

The man who never had to toil,
Who never had to win his share
Of sun and sky and light and air,
Never became a manly man,
But lived and died as he began.

Good timber does not grow in ease,
The stronger wind, the tougher trees;
The farther the sky, the greater the length,
The more the storm, the more the strength.
By sun and cold, by rain and snows,
In tree and man, good timbers grows.

If Tears Could Build a Stairway

If tears could build a stairway
And thoughts a memory lane,
We'd walk right up to heaven
And bring you back again.

No farewell words were spoken
No time to say goodbye,
You were gone before we knew it
And only God knows why.

Our heart still aches with sadness
And secret tears still flow,
What it meant to lose you
No one can ever know.

Since you'll never be forgotten
We pledge to you today,
A hallowed place within my hearts
Is where you'll always stay.
