The Welcome and Gathering

Opening Prayer

Hymn

These Hills

These hills where the hawk flies lonely, beaches where the long surf rolls,
mountains where the snows meet heaven,
these are our care.

Pastures where the sheep graze calmly,
orchards where the apple trees grow,
gardens where the roses cluster,
these are our prayer.

Forests where the tree ferns tower,
rivers running strong and clear,
seasons where the great whales wander,
these are our care.

Race meeting race as equals,
justice for age-old wrong,
worth for every man and woman,
these are our prayer.

Cities where the young roam restless,
lives brought to deep despair,
homeless and powerless people,
these are our care.

Places where the Word is spoken,
hands held in serving love,
faiths of our many cultures,
these are our prayer.

All that the old world gave us,
all that the new world brings,
language, ideas and customs,
these are our care.

Life finding joy and value,
faith seeking truth and light,
God heard and seen in all things,
this be our prayer.

Hymn

And Can It Be That I Should Gain?

And can it be that I should gain
An interest in the Saviour's blood?
Died He for me, who caused His pain?
For me, who Him to death pursued?
Amazing love! how can it be
That Thou, my God, should'st die for me?

'Tis mystery all! the Immortal dies!
Who can explore His strange design?
In vain the first-born seraph tries
To sound the depths of love divine!
'Tis mercy all! Let earth adore,
Let angel minds inquire no more.

He left His Father's throne above,
So free, so infinite His grace;
Emptied Himself of all but love,
And bled for Adam's helpless race;
'Tis mercy all, immense and free;
For, O my God, it found out me.

Long my imprisoned spirit lay Fast bound in sin and nature's night;
Thine eye diffused a quickening ray,
I woke, the dungeon flamed with light;
My chains fell off, my heart was free;
I rose, went forth and followed Thee.

No condemnation now I dread;
Jesus, and all in Him is mine!
Alive in Him, my living Head,
And clothed in righteousness divine,
Bold I approach the eternal throne,
And claim the crown, through Christ my own.

Reflection

Prayers of Thanksgiving Concluding with the Lord's Prayer

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father in heaven, Hallowed be your name,
Your Kingdom come,
Your will be done on earth as in heaven,
Give us today our daily bread,
Forgive us our sins,
As we forgive those who sin against us,
Save us from the time of trial,
and deliver us from evil. For the kingdom,
The power and the glory are yours,
Now and forever, Amen.

The Committal and the Farewell

Hymn

Guide Me, O Thou Great Jehovah

Guide me, O my great Jehovah
Pilgrim through this barren land.
I am weak, but you are mighty
Hold me with your powerful hand.
Bread of heaven, bread of heaven,
Feed me till I want no more,
Feed me till I want no more.

Open now the crystal fountain
Where the healing waters flow.
Let the fire and cloudy pillar Lead me all my journey through,
Strong Deliverer, strong Deliverer,
Ever be my strength and shield,
Ever be my strength and shield

When I tread the river Jordan,
Bid my anxious fears subside
Death of death, and hell's destruction,
Land me safe on Heaven's side.
Song of praise, songs of praises,
I will ever sing to you,
I will ever sing to you.
