

Nikki Stoebener

7 August 1961 - 15 May 2024

GEE & HICKTON
FUNERAL DIRECTORS
Serving greater Wellington families since 1946

Cornwall Manor

Thursday 23 May 2:00pm

Celebrant: Clare Ladd

Grief is the reminder
That love was present,
And that even if it's
No longer in its Original form,
That love still exists.

- Michelle Maroc

An Invitation

Following Nikki's Celebration of Life Service you are warmly invited to share your stories of Nikki over a cup of tea and some light refreshments in the Cornwall Manor Lounge.

Tributes

If you would like to send the family a message, or share a story about Nikki please do so online on the Gee and Hickton website.

Thank You

The family would like to thank
Kate Clarke (Oncologist)
Dr James Tietjens – Colorectal surgeon
Doctors and Nurses at Te Omanga Hospice

Order of Service

Nikki Stoebener

Commencement Songs

Scars in Heaven by Casting Crowns
Roll Back the Clouds by Christie Hennessy

Welcome and Introduction

Candle Lighting

Mason and Jayden

Eulogy

Philipp Stoebener

Images of Life

Dancing in the Sky by Dani and Lizzy
Goodbye by Lionel Richie

Poems

Grief is the Reminder - Jayden
Children of Grief by Nikita Gill - Mason
The Donkey Poem by Paula Blanch adapted for Nikki - Sarah

Final Words

Recessional Music

Calling All Angels by KD Lang